Bottom Right: "Would you like fries with that?", asks Senior Sean Tuma while cooking burgers in Wildwood.

Dayton students' summers are anything but dull. With its convenient location you can go to the beach, city, and mall all in the same day.

"I like the fact that you have access to so many things and places," says senior Lisa Neville.

During the day most students in Springfield found and maintained a job. There are so many career opportunities between the businesses here and even the famous Short Hills Mall around the corner. Tamar Raviv said, "I got my license so I was able to drive wherever and whenever I wanted."

There were plenty of things to do at night, from parties, movies, to just hanging out, students in town always found ways to have fun with their friends. Whether you stay in town or go on vacation, there are limitless possibilities for fun in the summer.

Far Right: Sean Tuma and Amanda Adler spend a night at the "Rez."

Middle: Senior Tamar Raviv yells, "On the count of three, everyone grab for the ketchup!"

"I like to hang out all night long on the weekends," stated senior Rachel Nehmer.

When school lets out, a whole world of socialization begins. Spending time hanging out with friends is a big part of a high school student's life. Whether it be the movies, mall, a cafe, or just going to someone's house, people spend their free time with friends.

When Jesse Stromeyer was asked what time he usually heads out, he said about nine-thirty at night and then comes home.....the next morning. Freshman Jamie Neville said, "On Friday nights, I like to go to the Springfield Y teen night."

Going out for coffee is a popular activity for just about any night. Seniors Jamie Yospin and Marci Schultz can be seen at Cafe Java in Westfield. Sophomore Daniel Poltrock said he likes to get his coffee at Starbucks.

Diners are another popular hangout. Places such as Union Plaza Diner, T.G.I. Friday's, Stanley's, and Bennigan's are usually filled with Springfield students.

Depending on the person, there are many different options for hanging out during their spare time. But one thing that everyone seems to agree on is that it really does not matter where you go, just as long as you are with friends.

Right: Alexis Frank and Rachel Tiss: "Don't we look good in our cool hats?"

Above: "What is going on in that boy's head?"

"Everyone's style and fashion is very similar here at Dayton," stated one of the students. There are many different types of looks at Jonathan Dayton High School. The children get their fashion from teen magazines, television, and other people. Some popular stores include Express, Limited, The Gap, Nordstrom, Guess, and J. Crew. Some favorite name brands include Guess, Tommy Hilfiger, and Polo Ralph Lauren. The popular colors here include many pastel shades of pink, purple, and blue. The classic black, white, and grey is still popular, too. A very popular look for guys is a solid button down shirt with fitted jeans. A very popular look for the girls is a bubble or fleece vest. Kate Spade backpacks are seen on almost every single girl along with the beaded bracelets. "The style and fashion is very up to date and styling here," stated a student. In conclusion, the fashion and style around you here at Dayton is very similar and modern.

Middle: "I'm late for work, can I go now?" asks senior Jenn Ortman.

Dayton students ride in style into the new millennium. Junior Chad Freundlich sums up the Dayton parking lot in one word, "Money!" From Audis to Jeeps to everything else, Dayton's parking lot has a lot of variety.

A license to a high school student is a permit to freedom. On weekends, "I can stay out as late as I want, wherever I want without worrying about getting a ride home," says senior Tiffany Dorn.

Since a license means so much, most people try to get their license as soon as possible. Tiffany, for example, wasted no time and got hers on her birthday. On the other hand, Chad was not able to make an appointment on his birthday, so he had to wait almost a week and a half. Good Luck to the new drivers!!!

Got Spirit? When you look around our school sometimes it's hard to tell. Some students are totally into it, and others just don't care. Most students agree that only about ten percent of our students are actually school spirited. But as soon as the pep-rallies roll around, that all changes. Everyone comes together to cheer on their grade and seems to enjoy the festivities. Junior Tara Listowski agrees that, "pep rallies are a lot of fun, but we need more time." The hour that we get for the pep rallies just isn't enough to show our spirit. Nevertheless many underclassmen aren't interested because they don't know how things work. "When I was a freshman we just sat there and kept quiet," says sophomore Candice Mooney. But it is evident that as students get older, their spirit increases. No one knows how the school can increase its spirit, but when it comes to interclass games and pep rallies, we've definitely got the spirit!

Breaking into the Millennium

Halloween as usual was a huge success at Jonathan Dayton. We began the week with the senior's traditional Haunted House. Once again the house was created with professional equipment to terrify students, faculty and other members of our community. This year for Halloween, most of our students dressed in groups; we had the traditional senior cats, the junior tigers, sophomore nerds, and the freshmen with a variety of costumes. Teachers were in the spirit as well, giving out candy and dressing up as college students. Dayton always proves that you are never too young for Halloween!!

STUDENT LIFE

Student life at Dayton varies greatly from student to student. There are some students who not only go to the school, but also take the time out of their "oh so busy" lives to actually participate in extra curricular activities. Some of those students take an extra step and really contribute positively to the activities.

On the other hand, there are students who just come to school and then go home or do whatever. From the time we each get up to when we go to bed we all are different, keeping Dayton diverse and interesting.

SENIOR FRIENDS

"This year the seniors are all different yet everyone gets along, it's great!" stated Justin Katz. "That's so true!" said Guillaume Gasparini. Dawn Dauser added, "Yeah we're all like one big happy family," and Zack Goldstein said, "I love everybody!" Seniors Rock!

INTERCLASS GAMES

Below: Senior girls "pile up" to show their happiness after destroying the other grades in Interclass Games.

Once again, this senior class has won the Interclass Games. The seniors have won five in total and are very happy with their victories. This year added two triumphs to their previous three wins.

This year, the Interclass Games had more of a positive atmosphere than other years. There seemed to be less fighting and rivalry between the grades. The grades acted more unified than previous years and came together very nicely.

The freshmen class, even though they lost, put up a very good fight and definitely tried very hard. The sophomore class also did very well, coming in third place. Next, in second came the junior class, who put in a lot of effort. Maybe next year they will win first! Finally, the super seniors placed first. They had plenty of spirit and without a doubt deserved their wins!

PROM 1999

On May 15, 1999 at around 11:30 pm most junior and senior girls began to prepare for their night of glamor. Between finding a date, the right dress, tux, hair-style, and nails, everyone made it and looked fabulous. Senior Michael Kessel said, "All of the anticipation was well worth it, I had a great time!"

The junior class advisor, Mrs. Modrak, along with the class officers and prom committee worked very hard to make this night a special one.

Our Prom was held at Brooklake Country Club. Everyone looked great in their impressive threads, while rolling up in their limos and party-buses. The girls all had their hair done and their dresses were quite appropriate for the last prom of the millenium. The men looked stunning as well. Afterall, we all did have "The Time of Our Lives."

HOMECOMING

Where can you dance all night, dress to impress, and see your friends all at the same time? Dayton's Homecoming Dance is one of the students' favorite events. It's when all freshmen, sophmores, juniors, and seniors come together. It's a fun-filled night with music and dancing, then later on Homecoming Prince, Princesses and Senior Superlatives are announced.

Alexis Frank says she liked "seeing everyone all together." For all seniors it was upsetting because it was their last homecoming dance. "I made the best out of it because it was my last homecoming dance at Dayton," says senior Luciana Cinicolo. However, for the first time, Senior Homecoming Queen and King was announced at the football homecoming game the following day, which was very suspenseful.

The class of 2000 Homecoming Queen is Valerie Jules. Valerie is a cheerleader for Dayton also. "I was very surprised and flattered when I found out!" said Valerie. Even when she was nominated, she never expected to win.

Although it was upsetting for most seniors, it was an exciting event and we all definitely "partied like it was 1999."

After speaking to Dayton students, one can hear about a whole variety of jobs. Some students choose to work only during the summer at places such as the town pool or summer camps because of homework and other activities during the school year. Others have decided to babysit to make money. Working for family or friends is also popular. Students find that working for or with people they know is far better than working alone.

It seems as though the majority of working students are seniors. This could be because seniors, with car payments to make and gas to pay for, have more of a need for money than the underclassmen. Whatever the reason, many of Dayton's students prefer to work.

SENIORS

Wow- the year 2000! Everybody is so excited for the millennium to begin, but seniors at Dayton are realizing that their years together are coming to an end. The class of 2000 has been through it all. We were the last class before deregionalization. We were very lucky to have the experience to go to school with Kenilworth for one year, and four years later still hold some friendships together. We have a very strong class and we always give it our all to come together and unite. Memories of our high school experiences will never be forgotten; lip sync, the pep rally , academics, interclass games, and most of all, friendships. High school may be over for us, and we may be moving on to new and greater things, but we will always have the memories of our years here to carry with us forever.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The underclassmen of Dayton consist of the freshmen, sophomores, and juniors . Throughout the year, the school competes in the inter-class games and other various competitions. Although the underclassmen are younger and inexperienced, they can still stand their ground. So, good luck to all of Dayton's underclassmen. Enjoy your years here!

FACULTY

The profession of teaching is a very rewarding one. They get to see their past students excel in the future. Even in Springfield, the students look to have a bright future. The students in Jonathan Dayton have been privileged to study under the influence of teachers, such as Mr. Kindler, Mr. Addvensky, and Mr. Foster. Of course, we have been saddened with the departure of Ms. Vachon and Ms. Gaffney, but we have a diverse group of faculty from the young to the experienced and the Jonathan Dayton faculty has always been a prestigious one. We have been blessed to have Mr. Pereira return, after a little speculation, and Mr. Serson is always a strong presence in our learning facility. No matter what anybody says, our teachers are always well dressed and happy to work...on pay days.

CLUBS & EVENTS

Student Auxiliary

There are many activities and functions throughout the year that occur in Dayton. In order for most of them to run successfully, the Student Auxiliary Club takes part in them to serve as either hall guides, ushers, or hostesses.

Each year a number of students join this club, and year after year the numbers seem to keep rising. Last year, 38 students joined the club and this year 43 students have joined. As you probably already know, Mrs. Frese has been the leader of this club for the past 16 years. When asked her why she chose to run this club, she replied, "The club has always been run by a faculty member in the Family and Consumer Science Department. I became advisor in 1984, when I started teaching at Dayton."

All the students appear to enjoy participating in this club. "It's fun to do and doesn't take up too much time. I especially liked helping out at Back to School Night," said member Christina Tomasino.

Student Auxiliary seems to be heading towards another year of success thanks to the dedication of the 43 members and the advisor, Mrs. Frese.

Peer Leadership

Below: We can always count on our "peer leaders" to serve as mentors to the freshmen.

What are good leadership qualities? Responsibility, honesty, enthusiasm, and the ability to be a good listener. In order to be a peer leader, you must have these certain qualities.

In this club of about 30 to 40 teenagers, students have to be willing to help others and become role models to all the students within the high school.

The Peer leadership club consists of juniors and seniors that are willing to be aids to others. They are involved in many helpful programs such as the freshman orientation and D.A.R.E. The peer leaders are expected to be positive leaders and role models to others that are in need of guidance.

Student Council

Every year, the Student Council works extremely hard to organize and provide activities that the student body of Jonathan Dayton will enjoy. The Student Council runs many school functions such as Homecoming, King of Hearts, Penny Wars, Field Day, and the Interclass Games. We also would not be able to have many of these activities if it were not for the assistance of our dedicated teachers, especially our advisor, Mrs. Cokeing. President Justin Katz, Vice President Jessica Lau, Secretary Rena Steinbeck, Treasurer Jessica Goldblat, and Public Relations representative Lauren Palias have guided this year toward success.

Seniors, Lisa, Lauren, and Jessica are always happy to help with the Student Council.

The Student Council brainstorms to come up with more fundraisers.

FBLA

Left: Dayton Future FBLA leaders.

Future Business leaders of America, also known as FBLA, has been at Dayton for four years. FBLA is run by Mrs. Modrack, Mrs. Darcy, and this year, Mrs. Murray will be assisting as well. The board of FBLA consists of Co-Presidents Alexis Frank and Rachel Tiss, Treasurer Jessica Falkin, Recorder Jeff Marx, and Secretary Jason Wiess. FBLA usually meets once a month, as a whole, and twice a month for the executive board. FBLA prepares the students for the business world that they will soon be entering. This club has successfully run the Dawg House which teaches students responsibility, professionalism, and how to deal with money. The main organization FBLA works with is March of dimes. Every year, the three schools that raise the most money for the charity are awarded. This is a future goal for Jonathan Dayton. FBLA had a wonderful visit with the Neo Natal unit at Saint Barnabus Hospital to see who exactly our proceeds were benefiting. "FBLA is one of the most successful clubs here at Dayton. All of the members put a lot of hard work and effort into it," says Alexis Frank. There are over 40 Students actively involved, and we hope the numbers keep on increasing.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization of students who are recognized for their academic achievements. Every fall, a select group of students engage in a ceremony where they are inducted into this society. As members of the National Honor Society, students are responsible for promoting leadership, scholarship, and community service.

Below: Lauren, Michelle, and Victoria are happy to be returning members.

The Foreign Honor Societies inspire students to excel in French, Spanish, and Italian. Acceptance into any of these societies requires dedication, leadership, and academic excellence. Members are inducted during a ceremony held at Dayton in May. During the ceremony, students light candles in the respective colors of the country's flag which they have studied. The Foreign Language Societies hold a large percentage of Dayton's students as members and gives others much to strive for.

Alternatives Club

The Alternatives Club is yet another club offered at Jonathan Dayton High School. This club was developed to help lure students away from drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. Being a member of this club encourages students to discourage the use of such substances. It also serves students in need by providing a shoulder to lean on.

Spanish, French, and Italian Clubs

Que pasa? Does this phrase mean anything to you? If not, don't worry, it doesn't matter in the Spanish Club. To join, all you need is a love for the Spanish language. Senor Farrel and Senora Axelrad head this exciting and educational club. There is a plethora of entertainment, with speakers, dances, and holiday celebrations. We even went on a trip to view Spanish dancing and listened to Spanish music. When we asked Senora Axelrad what her favorite thing is about the club, she replied, "To see everyone excited about language study." With about 60 student members in attendance, the Spanish Club had a great year!

The French Club has been here at Jonathan Dayton for many years. Madame Moscovitz has been in charge of this club for about 3 years now. The co-presidents are Alan Cohen and Dan Kazemi, the vice president is Bina Gordan, the treasurer is Manuela Gantea, the secretary is Ryan Dubiel, and the remainder of the executive board includes Michelle Khordos, Lawrence Bluestone, and Steven Lin. "This club was created to stimulate French culture outside of the classroom," stated Madame. Some memorable places the French Clubs has been to include the Museum of Modern Art, Pierre's Restaurant, Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, the Morris Museum, and seeing Les Miserables. "This truly is one of the most eventful and exciting clubs to join," stated a former French Club member. The French Club has had a great year, and if you aren't a member already, you should soon become one!

Below: Caio! It is the Italian Club!

The Italian Club, advised by Mr. Fabiano, engaged in many events which included going on interesting trips and planning various fundraisers. Also, in the beginning of the year, the club members held a social in which all the members were responsible for bringing in an array of Italian desserts. We had a great time tasting the desserts while listening to Italian music. Around Thanksgiving time, we dedicated our time toward cooking a nice Thanksgiving meal for the homeless. Knowing we could help others left a warm feeling within our hearts. Thanks to Mr. Fabiano and the members of the Italian Club for a great year.

The Diary of Anne Frank

"In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart," was the strongest message received by the audience at this year's fall drama, The Diary of Anne Frank. The shift from the traditional comedy of the past three dramas to the highly serious nature of this play was a true challenge for all of the actors involved. "We wanted to make people leave feeling that they were affected by it," explains senior Stephanie Shack, when asked about her hopes for the outcome of the show.

The show's director, Ms. Vachon, described her favorite aspect of the cast as, "Everybody has a vested interest in genuinely helping each other." Behind the scenes, helping Ms. Vachon out was Eula Kozma, the assistant director of the drama. "It was great," exclaims Ms. Vachon when asked about having an assistant director. "We noticed different things and made more corrections in a shorter amount of time."

Starring in The Diary of Anne Frank was Rachel Nehmer as Anne Frank, Adam Slater as Mr. Frank, Stephanie Shack as Mrs. Frank, Tamar Raviv as Margot Frank, Dan Kazemi as Mr. Van Daan, Karen Bibbo as Mrs. Van Daan, Dan Poltrock as Peter Van Daan, Matt Davis as Mr. Dussel, Alana Steele as Meip, and Jordan Levy as Mr. Kraler.

The entire cast became very close, sharing many fond memories, and many outbreaks of laughter. This was truly a show that will be remembered by all involved for years to come.

Key Club

"I heard about it when I was a freshman," says president Alana Steele, "and I liked it so much that I decided to stick with it." Secretary Karen Bibbo explains that "any club that gets people to help their community is worth joining." What club could produce such enthusiastic members as these? You guessed it, the Key Club.

As one of Dayton's largest clubs, the Key Club is "a club devoted to volunteering," as Bibbo would describe it.

There is a wide range of activities that the Key Club participates in. Among these activities include donating time or funds to the giving tree, Christmas present wrapping, recycling every Thursday, volunteering at the Children's Specialized Hospital, The March of Dimes, and many more. New activities are constantly being added on each year.

How does one become a member? All one has have to do to be in this club is pay a fee of twelve dollars and sign up. Members must participate in the activities and gain points to remain a member. If a member does not have the necessary points, after a couple warnings, he or she will be asked to leave the club.

So what's the deal with the Key Club? It is a wonderful club that dedicates its time towards helping other people.

Musical Theater

What would you do if you found out that the world was going to end in a few days? This is the question which became the basis of this year's musical theater project, Y2DAY. The musical theater class allowed students to write, compose, direct, and choreograph all music and text within the shows themselves. "The class gives the students the freedom to do what they want; we [the students] have more say, and are able to learn from each other," expresses senior Dawn Dauser.

The teachers of the class, Ms. Vachon and Mr. Slate, supervise the happenings of the class, and help to expedite any glitches along the way. Many of the class participants this year agree that the class was a great way to, "give those students, who are interested in theater, a chance to express their ideas and experience theater on a different level," as senior Eula Kozma points out.

Y2DAY was based around the journey of Charlie, the main character of the show. The show emphasized different people's reactions to the new millennium and focused on whether or not the world was going to end once the year 2000 finally approached. When asked why students chose this topic, senior writer Stephanie Shack replies, "It was different; we could do a lot of different things with it. The millennium is something everyone can relate to on some level."

The musical theater production was a huge success. It allowed students to learn crucial teamwork skills

Concert Band & Choir

Some people ask, "We have a band?" The answer is "Yes!" It's growing little by little and it's getting stronger and stronger. The band conductor, Mr. Slate, has been studying music since he was in the fourth grade and enjoys every minute of it. Mr. Slate's band director in college inspired him to teach. Although he loses talented seniors each year, he does see upcoming talent in the future classes. In addition to teaching at Dayton, he teaches classes at the middle school as well. The quality of musicianship has changed largely over the few years he has been teaching here at Dayton. Mr. Slate feels the band has improved "at least 200 percent." Losing seniors each year will bring some roughness to the concert band, but it's just like any other class, club, or sport. Losing someone you've worked with for a while is never good. Now the responsibility of the underclassmen must grow to make the year as smooth as possible.

This year's Jonathan Dayton Choir has been, and continues to be, quite successful. Choir is a full year course which requires students to perform in various concerts at the end of each semester. Four very strong vocal sections form this year's choir. Many different types of genres of music are sung over the course of the year.

Tonya Boehme, our choir teacher, is the newest addition to the choir. She joins the Jonathan Dayton staff this year from Wyoming. She is enjoying her first year at Jonathan Dayton and finds it very easy to get along with her students. To her, music means heart, soul, and communication.

Class Council

In mid-October, after a week of activities and contests, the main gymnasium was divided into brilliant shades of blue, orange, white, and red. Interclass games could perhaps be considered the best indication of a class's spirit and enthusiasm. Along with games, each class was responsible for fund-raising activities. The Freshmen, who made a commendable effort during spirit week, managed to organize a plant sale, along with t-shirt and sticker sales. The Sophomores were responsible for organizing the talent show, while the Juniors kept themselves occupied with the planning of the Lip Sync contest and the prom. The Senior class demonstrated their superiority early in the school year winning the megaphone at the pep rally. The class of 2000 officers organized Jello-Wrestling to raise money to attain their goal of a senior trip to Great Adventure with minimal cost to the students. The spirit and strength the class of 2000 has exhibited since their freshman year has carried the class as a cohesive unit into the new millennium.

Art Club

Art Club members have certainly brightened up Jonathan Dayton's walls this year. Mr. Addvensky's wall in the Senior hallway is covered with all sorts of TV items such as VCR's, tapes, and cameras. Mr. Foster's door has two oceanic scenes on it; one of a boat and a scuba diver with a mermaid, and the other side, a palm tree and a beach scene. The Performing Arts bulletin board was decorated with curtains and musical notes, and the Senior Memory Wall is yet to be completed. Also, something new was done this year. Jessica Hartman, Art Club President, painted the cafeteria windows for holidays. In addition to decorating the walls with artwork, some Art Club members participated in Teen Arts, a competition in which high school and grammar school students display their artwork and have professionals critique their work. Hopefully, some members will have their art entered in a contest for the state.

King Of Hearts

On February 10, 2000, the student council sponsored their third annual King of Hearts. The King of Hearts is a competition in which male students from Dayton compete with one another in an array of categories including casualwear, talent, swimwear, and evening attire, in an attempt to win the hearts of the audience members and judges in order to be deemed the "King of Hearts" for the year 2000. Some contestants danced, recited poetry, played the keyboard, and one even tossed a salad. After the formal wear competition, the contestants danced and lip synced to the Mambo #5. The King of Hearts was hosted by seniors Hara Tuchman and Alana Steele who both claim that "it was a little unorganized, but everything worked out. We both had a great time and it was a big hit."

Fivesemifinalists were chosen to respond to thought-provoking questions. From those answers, the judges determined the first, second, and third place winners. Second runner up was Mark Aguero and the first runner up was Adam Slater. This winner of King of Hearts this year was senior Kellum Smith. Overall, the night was a huge success.

The class of 2000 wasn't looking as attractive as usual during the week of October 26th. The senior class at Jonathan Dayton created a Haunted House to raise money for project graduation. All the seniors worked together to make the "House of Ghouls" a huge success.

Parents and students dedicated time a week prior to help set up for the Haunted House. Justin Katz claimed, "Not only did everyone have a lot of fun, but it was one of the scariest haunted houses Dayton ever put together."

Because the parents and students put so much time and effort into this project, the seniors were able to sponsor a successful Haunted House and raise a good deal of money for their project graduation.

Lip Sync

The 1999-2000 Lip Sync contest, put on by the Junior class, was a great success. This event was hosted by juniors Dana Rutkowski and Felix Mil. There were many wonderful acts performed throughout the course of the night which served as great entertainment. The Freshmen danced to a Disney medley, while the Sophomores danced to Michael Jackson's "Thriller." The Juniors did a Millennium Countdown, and the Seniors sang to a Madonna mix. There were also some individual performers, such as Mark Aguero and Sam Battaglia. The Junior class ended up being the winners, followed by the Sophomores in second place and the Seniors in third place. According to Jenn Cheung, "The show was great. All the performers were extremely talented and did a great job." Overall, the Lip Synch turned out to be a great success.

Mock Trial

This is the second year that we have participated in the Mock Trial competition. This year, the trial is a criminal homicide case. The trial is made to be as realistic as possible. The students even improvise cross examination questions. The trial takes place in March, so preparation started in December.

Each school has two teams, the defense and the prosecution, which are composed of two lawyers and three witnesses each. Every school must also bring six jury members to the trial which takes place in the Elizabeth courthouse. The students are assisted by Mrs. Axelrad, Ms. Treuger, and Yale Greenspoon, a lawyer. With their help, the student witnesses and lawyers can learn what it takes to stay afloat in the law profession.

Quiz Bowl

below: Dina and Jessica are dressed to impress and ready to win their next competition.

The Quiz Bowl is a club that has been in establishment at Dayton for only three years now. The advisors of the Quiz Bowl, Senora Axelrad and Mrs. Trueger, claim that "they have the pleasure to work with some of the most intelligent students within the school." The members who participate in the Quiz Bowl compete against members from other schools. They are asked a series of trivia questions and try to earn the most points by answering them correctly. The team with the most points goes on to the next round and is eventually able to win the title of "Quiz Bowl Champion."

Although the Quiz Bowl is not one of Dayton's largest clubs, we are proud to say that it does contain many of our brightest students.

Yearbook

"Breaking into a New Millennium"

A lot of time and effort goes into producing a yearbook. Pictures must be taken, articles must be written, and layouts for each page must be formed. The yearbook staff is faced with deadlines and they become pressed for time to get everything done in order for the yearbook to be its best. During the year, hundreds of pictures are taken, but only a select number make the final cut. Our advisor Ms. Schlesinger, the yearbook editors, and the entire yearbook staff hope the class of 2000 enjoys their yearbook and the memories it contains.

Newspaper

"DawgPrint"

The Dawg Print, Dayton's newspaper, is the best way for the students to get information about what is going on within the school. Every month, students eagerly await the distribution of the newspaper. The advisor is Mrs. Rooney-Kuhn, and the coeditors are the beautiful Lauren Pellet and Zachary Goldberg, not to be confused with Zachary Goldstein, the editor of the yearbook. Miss Pellet claims that "all of the people on the staff have put in a lot of personal time and effort towards improving the quality of the paper." The horoscopes are the most successful part of the paper, although Senorita Smillita's identity is still a mystery.

Football

Dayton's football team has shown tremendous improvement over the course of the 1999-2000 season. This year's scores demonstrated much of our improvement due to the great coaching of Coach Sep, along with the determination of each and every player. Team captains, BJ Jones and Charles Beyer, claim that this year's season was a lot better than the year prior. The following players were recognized, by either the county or the state for, their outstanding performances on the field: BJ Jones, Matt Fischer, Justin Azran, Todd Walters, and David Woodruff. "We all feel like one big family," says Charles Beyer. Although many outstanding seniors are graduating, we all hope that the team can continue to play just as well next year.

Girls Soccer

After losing eight starters last year, the Girls Soccer team was concerned about staying afloat during the 1999 season. Because there wasn't enough girls to compete for Varsity, only a J.V. team could be created for this season. Most teams wouldn't have been able to handle the move down, but the girls put that aside, played hard, and ended up having a promising season.

Head coach Mr. Cozza, believes that the girls had a great season because of the mixture of very talented upperclassmen, along with the addition of our ten excellent freshmen. "The team put in excellent efforts and they played very hard," says Coach Cozza. Most of the same girls should be back next year, so a similar season is expected.

The team hopes that they will be back playing at a Varsity level for next season. Captain Esther Aizenberg says, "I think our team will be playing Varsity next year because we played J.V. really well."

Gymnastics

Although gymnastics is based at Brearley again this year, a few students from Dayton still participate. However, because of the long commute to Brearley, participation of Dayton students is down. The four Springfield members are senior Laura Moiseev, junior Nicole Naggar, and sophomores Melissa LoSchiavo and Stephanie Weiss. Combined with Brearley, there are twelve members of the gymnastics team.

During a gymnastics meet, only four people from each team can compete in each of the four events: bars, beam, vault, and the floor exercise. This means that not all team members can compete in every meet. Lauren Veselli, from Kenilworth, is able to compete in all of the events because it is her last year on the team. Melissa LoSchiavo, on the other hand, chooses to only participate in one event, vaulting. Although there are few participants in the gymnastics program, the team members give it their all to perform to the best of their ability.

This year, Dayton's volleyball team was not going down without a fight. Returning for his second consecutive year as head coach was Anthony Scarpelli. Coach Scarpelli has had years of experience with volleyball, so the team was in good hands. Also, a new addition to the team this season was Assistant Coach Dave Rennie.

This year's Varsity captains were seniors Karin Abanto and Lindsey Parman. Their skills led the team to much success. Junior Tara Listowski says, "We had a great season this year, although we are losing many of our valuable players next year, we will still strive to be the best." Although the team was pleased with the effort this season, they hope to improve for next year's season.

Girls Tennis

This year, the tennis team had a good season. They finished the season with a record of 8 wins and 7 losses. Rachel Mandel, a junior on the girl's tennis team, states, "The team consists of all younger players and this will be a big advantage for next year and the years to come. Because we are a young team, mostly sophomores and juniors, we will have much experience when next year's season rolls around. Hopefully, we should be able to place second in our Conference behind Oak Knoll, who is great every year." Nicole Osit, a sophomore on the tennis team explains, "Overall, we had a very good season. For the most part, I have improved a great deal since last season. The team also improved as a whole."

Christy Delloiocano, along with other team members, enjoyed being on the tennis team because of the social aspect. "I've made a lot of good friends here," explains Christy, "especially girls from other grades."

Coach Presco enjoyed working with the team and was content with their performance this season. "For the most part, we have had a good season. Although our record might not have been as good as we would have liked, I can't complain. Despite our losses, the girls tried their hardest throughout the whole season, and have lost a few heartbreaking matches that could have gone either way. The girls seem like they are having a lot of fun and are enjoying themselves."

The tennis team consisted of many determined and talented individuals. Regardless of who won, the girls always walked away with big smiles on their face. As they say, "Even if we end up losing the match, we're still better looking than our opponents."

Fall Cheerleading

Just because they don't charge across the goal lines, hit home runs, or slam dunk, doesn't mean they don't affect the game. They are always there to support our teams. The cheerleaders of Jonathan Dayton go to every home and away game throughout the season. "This year we feel like a group of sisters," said Heather Shanely. "We work together, as a squad, to give as much pep as we can."

The Varsity squad consists of senior captains Melissa Fernandez, Luciana Cinicolo, and Lauren Palais. Other members include seniors Jameelah Simms and Valerie Jules, junior Dana Rutkowski, and sophomores Heather Shanely, Jennifer Lewis, Vangie Guilas, and Colby Tiss. "As a squad, we have so much fun decorating the football players' houses and baking them cookies." Even though the cheerleaders don't get as much recognition as they would like, they still play a big role in leading our teams to victory.

Cross Country

The boys and girls cross country teams both had very impressive seasons. The boy's team finished in second place in the conference, while the girls team finished in third place.

The boys team, led by coach Bob Kozub, had a rough start towards the beginning of the season, but managed to pull through in the end. Senior Jeff Marx's third place finish helped Jonathan Dayton beat out Roselle and Oratory in the conference. The team also received strong finishes by John Cottage, Tim Homlich, Chris Phillips, and Chris Melendez.

The girls team, led by coach William Byrne, also performed very well. The team, led by Lisa Denicolo and Julie Marx, finished with a record of 3-3. The team is looking forward to next season.

Swimming

The 1999-2000 swim team had a great season this year. The team ended the season with a record of 6-5. This is a dramatic improvement compared to last season's record of 1-7-1. But victory was not won easily this year. With much hard work and devotion, the team got out of its slump. Eula Kozma feels that, "Despite a rough start, the team pulled together and managed to have a winning season."

This year's team captains were Michelle Santoro, Jamie Ravaioli, and Nate Denner. The coach was Joyce Pinkava, and the assistant coach was Margaret McCullough. Both claim they will miss this year's seniors very much.

Winter Cheerleading

The Varsity Cheerleaders had a great 1999 - 2000 season. We had a rather large squad consisting of fifteen girls which allowed us to do an array of complicated stunts. We practiced every day to create a fantastic routine which we performed during halftime sessions at Dayton Basketball games and for various competitions. When asked to express their feelings towards graduating and leaving the squad, Captains Luciana Cinicola and Melissa Fernandez feel that they had accomplished a great deal over the year. "We're going to miss cheerleading next year, especially all the girls on the squad. We all have become so close that we feel like one big family." Overall, we had a great winter season. We are sorry to see many of our talented seniors graduate, but we are determined to maintain an enthusiastic squad for next year.

Hockey

This year, Dayton teamed up with Brearley to end an exciting season with a record of 7-13-0 for Varsity and 1-4 for Junior Varsity. This is a great improvement from last season's finishing record. Unfortunately, as we are gradually improving as a team, we are disappointed that many of our star players are leaving us. However, these unique seniors have left us with a great season full of memories and, most of all, superb playing skills. Captains Jared Cohen, who started late due to an injury, and Gerardo Roman managed to help guide the team towards a successful season. Jared Cohen should be recognized for the most points scored, 61 points this season.

There appears to be many great underclassmen who will be given a chance to shine next year, after our star players have moved on. However, our seniors will be greatly missed. Congratulations and good luck to the graduating seniors. It will be very difficult to fill your shoes next season.

Girls Basketball

The Lady Dawgs ended the 1999 season with a 11 - 11 record. Although the girls would have liked to perform much better on the court, they did demonstrate a remarkable improvement compared to last year's season of 5 - 15. The girls practiced and played intensely under the leadership of Co-captains Rachel Tiss and Tara Listowski . The captains claim, "All the players focused on working together as a team."

In addition to the performance of the players, much of the team's success could be attributed to the coaching styles of Mr. Campbell, Mr. Griffith, and Mr. Rennie. Although the coaches, along with Dayton's basketball fans, realize that many of our senior players are graduating, the Lady Dawgs anticipate a strong return next year.

Boys Basketball

This year, Dayton's Boys Basketball team got off to an 8 - 0 start, winning the Rahway Christmas Tournament. After suffering a loss to North Plainfield, and 2 losses to St. Mary's, Dayton got back on track and won the rest of its schedule, finishing second in the Mountain Valley Conference. After showing a nice outing in the county tournament, with a victory over Roselle and a loss to Union, the team finished the season with a loss to University in the State Tournament. Dayton finished with a record of 17 - 5. Overall, we had a fairly successful season.

Winter Track

The 1999 - 2000 Winter Track season took off to a decent start with Byrne, Cozza, Kozub, and Roberts as coaches. The team, which consisted of 24 members, participated in various activities such as the 55meter dash, 55meter hurdle, 400, 1600, 3200meter relay, shot-put, and high jump. This year we were fortunate enough to have a member of our student body deemed Conference Champion. Conference Champion Olga Oksov trained intensely and had no trouble sweeping the 5 foot high jump category.

Coach Byrne proudly admits, "The team appears to be extremely dedicated and seems determined to do well." He looks forward to coaching for his 27th year in the 2000-2001 season. He hopes that Dayton can win many more winter track events in next year's conference.

They also claim that they participate more for fun, rather than for competition; however, winning a match always feels good.

Wrestling

The 1999 - 2000 wrestling team had a most impressive season. They finished with a record of 19 - 8 and placed third in the Union County Tournament, second in the Christmas Tournament, and second in the NJSIAA District X Tournament. Many team members placed in the tournaments with 11 top eight finishers in the county, including a Attila in first place (winning his second consecutive tittle), 1-second place, and 3-third place winners. In the district tournament, there were 3 first place winners and 5 second place finishers. Five members went on to finish top eight in the region. Also, five Brearly records were shattered this year, two by Attila Vigilante for most takedowns and most falls in a season, and two by Stefano Sarracino for most near falls and most team points in a season. The wrestlers lived up to their potentials, and had an amazing year.

Boys Tennis

Jonathan Dayton's 1999-2000 Tennis team is having an amazing season. Holding an undefeated record of 8-0, the Tennis team is nearing completion for this school year. The team is defending last season's conference championship title. With the way things are going for the Dawgs right now, the boys have a good chance to win another conference championship title, as well as a possible state championship. With only two seniors graduating this year, Dan Osit and Dan Delloiacono, the Boys Tennis team anticipates on defending its previously held titles next season as well.

Softball

Dayton's 2000 Girls Softball team started off their game season with great effort and enthusiasm. The girls were determined to perform their best on the field despite their handicap of having a small Varsity team. Due to the expertise of Coaches Campbell, Rennie, Ramos, and Mischel, the girls rapidly learned new skills and strategies to improve their game and make up for the lack of players. Although the size of the team will diminish greatly after many of our seniors graduate, we remain confident that Dayton's Girls Softball team will have a successful 2001 season.

Spring Track

The 2000 Spring Track team returns with many standout athletes and welcomes several new members. One of the most significant athletes returning this year is Justin Azran. Justin is one of the top shot putters in the state. He is an All-Conference and All-State football player, along with shot-putter/sprinter, Matt Fischer, and sprinter/long-jumper,

B.J. Jones. Another returning athlete this year is Jeff Marx, who had captured the 3200 meter conference title in '99. A strong female returnee this spring is Olga Oksov, an All-County high jumper. Newcomers Mo Abdelaziz, Scott Hollander, John Cottage, Lyndsey Parman, and Niki Davidman make Dayton's Spring Track team a formidable competitor.

Golf

Jonathan Dayton's 2000 Golf Team has proven to be extremely dedicated and loyal to the sport and the team as a whole. Ross Kravetz, Mallory Zambolla, and Josh Wolkoff are the four new members who have joined the team this year. With regret, the golf team will be losing many of its most talented Seniors this year. Jared Cohen, Michael Sharpe, and Richard Bickel are seniors who have been great assets to the team and will be missed greatly. Although a good portion of the team is graduating, the students of Jonathan Dayton remain optimistic about next year's season.

Baseball

When we think about Jonathan Dayton's Varsity Baseball team, two words immediately come to mind: unity and dedication.

Unity - This baseball team is different than any other baseball team that has come through Dayton. The core of the players, including Co-captains Jesse Stromeier and Adam Slater, have played together throughout their high school careers. Together, the team has developed into one of the best teams in the conference. The players have grown on each other over the years and have become a true team.

Dedication - One major factor contributing to Dayton's success this year is the dedication that each player has put forth in practice over the winter. "Many of the players were constantly training in the weight room and hitting in the cages during the off-season," states senior catcher Lorenzo Williams.

The dedication is so strong that each player bleached their hair blonde in order to please the baseball gods.

With the aid of Clayton Trivett and Lou Dellapia, the Varsity Baseball Team is prepared to take on every team in the conference this year. After a disappointing 1999 season, the team is hungry for a Mountain Valley Conference Championship.

Children of Dayton become the Children of Eden

In the beginning... there was a group of students looking for a challenging, new, mature work to perform. Searching far and wide, they'd "seek for their garden", all the way back to the old testament (or the protozoa, or whichever came first), and they met their match with Children of Eden. This year's spring musical, a retelling of the first nine and a half chapters of the book of Genesis, was a truly wonderful experience for both those involved in mounting the production, and the audience members who viewed the performance. The heartwarming story spans creation, Adam and Eve, Noah and the Ark, and the nine-hundred years in between. The pop/rock musical was "created" by John Caird, with music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz of Godspell. With a beautifully rich musical score, highlighted by the foot tapping madness of a riveting gospel number, the wild syncopated rhythms of the African themed "Generations", along with the beauteous choral sound of the title song, Children of Eden truly captivated the minds of the cast, directors, and audience, while managing to capture their hearts as well.

ADS & MESSAGES

We have now gotten to our senior year, and we wait for proms and homecoming and most of all, graduation day. We will pick up our caps and gowns and all that other senior stuff that is supposed to help us remember the good 'ole days; but things we'll remember most can't be put down on paper. We will look back on the time spent at Jonathan Dayton and realize that it was short lived and that it didn't seem as if there was enough time to accomplish everything that we wanted. Our names will be called, tassles will be turned, and diplomas will be received by students that will serve as a rite of passage. At that moment, we will say good-bye to our school, our friends, and maybe our town. We do realize that we can return just to visit, but the halls will be full of strangers. It feels as if it is all ending and that things will never be the same. In fact, it's not the end, everything is just beginning. Congratulations and good luck to the class of 2000!!

DON'T BE DISMAYED AT GOODBYES.
A FAREWELL IS NECESSARY BEFORE WE CAN MEET AGAIN.
AND MEETING AGAIN IS CERTAIN FOR THOSE WHO ARE FRIENDS.

NEW YEAR'S EVE 2000

MOVING ON

THERE COMES A TIME WHEN WE ARE EXPECTED TO GROW UP AND MOVE ON WITH OUR LIVES.
THAT DOESN'T MEAN I HAVE TO SAY GOODBYE TO YOU, MY FRIEND.

TOGETHER WE'VE LEARNED THAT LIFE HAS ITS UPS AND DOWNS,
BUT TREAT IT LIKE A ROLLER COASTER-
THROW YOUR HANDS IN THE AIR AND ENJOY THE RIDE.

YES, MY FRIEND, IT'S TIME FOR US TO MOVE ON IN THIS JOURNEY OF LIFE.
EVEN THOUGH OUR JOURNEYS MAY TAKE US
TO OPPOSITE ENDS OF THE WORLD,
ALWAYS KNOW THAT YOU ARE MY FRIEND FOR LIFE.

BACK IN THE DAY.. '92

SPRING BREAK 2000

HOW LUCKY I AM TO HAVE KNOWN SOMEONE WHO WAS SO HARD TO SAY GOODBYE TO

I DON'T KNOW HOW WE MANAGED TO MEET EACH OTHER.
I DON'T REMEMBER WHO GOT ALONG WITH WHOM FIRST.
ALL I CAN REMEMBER IS ALL OF US TOGETHER...ALWAYS

AS WE GO ON,
WE REMEMBER ALL THE TIMES WE HAD TOGETHER.
AND AS OUR LIVES CHANGE,
COME WHATEVER,
WE WILL STILL BE FRIENDS FOREVER.

BEST FRIENDS ARE BETTER THAN BOYFRIENDS.

GIRLFRIENDS ARE THE SISTERS DESTINY FORGOT TO GIVE YOU

I'LL LEAN ON YOU AND YOU LEAN ON ME AND WE'LL BE OKAY.

*Friends : you and me...
You brought another friend...
And then there were three...
We started our group...

BEST
FOREVER

You have stood beside me
you have helped me
to be strong.
You have used your strength
to guide me;
you have helped me
carry on.

You have pushed me in the right direction
when you saw me
start to stray.
You have reminded me
I can get through this
each and every day...
your thoughtfulness
has touched my heart.
Your friendship
means so much.

Thank you
for always being there
for me.
Thank you
for being a friend.

Senior Memories

SABINO BATTAGLIA

Hey Guys You Did It! I'm going to miss you all. You seniors gave me another reason to get up and face the world. You're a great group of people. Remember what I always say, "Never give up and do what your heart tells you."

This yearbook took over 1,786,509 and 1/3 man hours to complete. We experienced several technical difficulties and many bumps along the way but were able to persevere. Producing a fabulous yearbook packed with 220 pages of fun and excitement was not easy, but we did it. Enjoy it and keep it safe so you can show your kids when you're forty, proof of just how cool you really were.
